

Question 2

Why does the browser display the alt text instead of the image? What is the purpose of the alt attribute in the `<img>` tag?

The browser displays the alt tag instead of the image. When the image cannot be loaded. The alt alternative text attribute in the image tag serves several important functions.